Середина урока (30 min)	Jigsaw speaking - Formative assessment (W, I, G): Teacher gives out the handout 1. Students have to complete 6 columns in the given tables. After that, the students work in expert groups and compare their answers (all students must have the same handout, i.e. student A or B, etc.) Then they are regrouped (groups of 4 with different cards) and they share the information in the new groups. Differentiation: High-performing students have to name the sports themselves or they can use dictionaries. Middle students have to unjumble the given letters to make the name of the sport activities. Low-performing students have the names of the sport activities and the pictures for the places to prompt them. Compare and contrast (P): students compare their sport activities. Overall, they should name at least 5 similarities and/or differences. Differentiation: Early finishers can choose 1 or 2 sport activities and compare those with their partners' ones. Listening Formative Assessment (I): teacher chooses which listening task to use based on the level of the majority of the students. A1-A2: Students have to listen to 3 short situations and find the corresponding pictures. A2-high A2/B1: Students listen to the recording and complete the TRUE/ FALSE task. Peer-assessment: students swap their papers and check the answers. IMPORTANT: once the teacher has decided on the level of language complexity in the listening task, (s)he should add a slide with the answer keys to the PPT presentation!
Конец урока (2 min)	Reflection (W): Give me 5!:students have to <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Why is it important to respect each other?</li> <li>2) Why do we need rules and regulations?</li> </ol> Plenary (I): Teacher nominates a student to sum up what has been learned in today's lesson. Homework: teacher explains the 4 tasks in the handout 4.
