An old fisherman and his wife lived in a small house near the sea. They were very poor. One day, the fisherman caught a golden fish. "Please let me go," said the fish, "and you can have anything you wish!" The fisherman was very surprised. The fish could speak! "Dear little fish," said the old man, "I don't want anything!" He let the fish go and walked home. He told his wife about the fish. "You fool!" she shouted. "We need a new bucket! Go back and ask for a bucket!" So the fisherman went back to the sea. It was calm. He called the golden fish and it swam up to him. "What do you want, good man?" it asked. "My wife wants a new bucket," said the fisherman. "You can have your wish. Go home now," said the fish and swam away. The fisherman went home and saw a new bucket, but his wife was still angry. She wanted a new house.
